CRAIG CZURY

Craig Czury (1951) grew up in the coal region of northeastern Pennsylvania, USA. He spent 15 years hitchhiking North America, working in carnivals, warehouses, canneries, construction crews, restaurant kitchens, and organizing community poetry readings. Author of 20 collections of poetry, several have been translated to Spanish, Italian, Lithuanian, Russian, Croatian and Albanian. He is the editor of two anthologies, FINE LINE THAT SCREAMS from his Northeast Pennsylvania Prison Poetry Project, and UN SEGUNDO EN EL TIEMPO/ONE SECOND AT A TIME, poets of the Reading Hispanic community. Czury works as a poet in schools, homeless shelters, prisons, mental hospitals and community centers throughout the world. Named Laureate of the XV “Ditët E Naimit” International Albanian Poetry Festival in 2011, Czury has been awarded many national and international fellowships to continue his collaborative poem fusion performance and poetry mural projects. An avid blues harp and bocce player, Czury earned an M.F.A. from Wilkes University and is a lecturer at Albright College. He lives in Reading, Pennsylvania where is is Berks County Poet Laureate.
