BIRTHDAY .... OF POETRY AND PROSE

Within the Literary Circle of Mesa Selimovic\(^1\) was held in Sarajevo extremely unusual poetic and prose matinee on Saturday, 19.1.2013.g.

A guest of matinee was a writer Sabahudin Hadžialić who, along with the presentation and opening welcoming remarks from coordinator of the programme, poet Admiral Mahić and welcoming homage given by bh. theater doyen Muharem Osmic through the words from the novel of "Dervish and Death" of Mesa Selimovic, had their own guests:

- Tuzla: Jagoda Iličić and Nihad Mesic River
- Zenica: Prof.dr. Smajil Durmišević
- Sarajevo: Irena Marić, Mirza Okić and Goran Vrhunc

However, in the beginning of the matinee has been celebrated 65th birthday of Bosnia/Herzegovina poet Admiral Mahić whose verses opened Matinee. With a gifts from Literary Circle Mesa Selimović with the gift given also from Hadzialic to his colleague and friend, Admiral Mahić, during the next two hours was presented:

- Poetic prose opus of Hadžialic (poetry, stories, short-stories, aphorisms, parts of stage plays)

His own guests Hadžialić presented with reference to their works published in DIOGEN culture magazine in December 2012:

\(^1\) Famous ex-Yugoslava, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Serbia writer (1910-1982)-
