

DIOGEN traži čovjeka
2012.
DIOGEN is seeking for human being

NIHAD MEŠIČ RIVER

Nihad Mešić was born in Tuzla, Bosnia and Herzegovina in 1965. He published articles related to human rights and conflict resolution. In 2007 co-authored the book „Globalising Hope/ Globalizzare Speranza”, published by IUPIP in Italy. He worked as translator from English and French and is involved in peace and human rights activism. As „River”, Nihad published poetry from 2002 at the Cyberbulevar Forum, „Tuzlarije”, „Diogen” and „Maxminus”. He co- authored the book of poetry „Pod istim nebom” in 2008, and authored „Dovoljno lud” in 2009, „Kroćenje straha“ in 2010 and “Iza oklopa” in 2011 published by DHIRA verlag, Switzerland. He is represented among the poets from Bosnia in “Poetas del Mundo”. Among authors from 25 countries from all around the World has been included in Anthology “Poets for World Peace”, 2011, published by DIOGEN pro culture magazine & DHIRA, Swiss. River participated in Poetry Marathon “DIOGEN is seeking for human being” in Sarajevo, organized by Sarajevo Winter Festival and DIOGEN pro culture magazine; Belgrade “Poetsko ćošće” and project “Balkan - House of Diversity”. His poem “Andric, Travnik and I” was rewarded in 2011 at the Competition of the Croatian Cultural Society “Napredak” in Travnik, His poem “Ne moramo o politici” was among the ten most read poems at the website Primijenjena poezija for months. His poems were translated to English, German and French and presented in media. Nihad lives and works in Tuzla, Bosnia and Herzegovina.

WWW: <http://nihadmesicriver.weebly.com/>

DIOGEN

pro kultura magazin pro culture magazine

<http://diogen.weebly.com>