

The World Haiku club, World Haiku Review

<https://sites.google.com/site/worldhaikureview2/march-2013-issue/hiku-3---vanguard>

Haiku page 3, Vanguard

1st Place

In every flower
The hidden I am
Looks at me

Riitta Rossilahti

*

2nd Place

how things don't matter
when I sit down to explain
how things don't matter

Martin Esposito

*

3rd Place

Fogged mirror
Learning to smile
At myself

Cathy Drinkwater Better

Seven Honorable Mentions
(in no particular order)

doctor's office
staring at the book
I still plan to read

Cathy Drinkwater Better

*

picture postcard
ghosts from this city
the sea took back

Rebecca Drouilhet

*

shaving off my beard:
the scar from the war
appears in the mirror

Ty Hadman

*

Coffin flowers

Once in full colour
Last blooms adorn
A willow box.

Michael Baron

*

first light
the srushing weight
of sleepless hours

Cathy Drinkwater Better

*

Gulls compete for the winter sky
so what has the crow
to shout about.

Colin Steward Jones

*

hot chocolate
his warm hand on mine
truce

Máire Morrissey-Cummins

*

Zatsuei

Haiku of Merit

(in the alphabetical order of authors' surname)

sunbeams
when her bud bursts,
my flower child

S.M.Abeles

*

departing... the heaviness of
mother's hug

Ramesh Anand

*

Bones of contention
Beneath Leicestershire car park
From Ambion Hill

Grave situation
Bring home our last Son of York
With us for ever

Martin A. Chambers

*

pond hockey
searching for the puck
in a thicket of reeds

Bill Cooper

*

zhe winds of time
corrode the flesh in
the desert spirit
Tatjana Debeljački

*

remembering all the things I promised her ghost moon
Robert Michael Drouilhet

*

each moment
is what we have

Marje A. Dyck

*

knotted like a rune
she rests no less beautiful giving dreams a home

Maring Esposito

*

I've just found the bulbs
those you promised to plant
you sod in the ground

Helen Frost

PR
DIOGEN pro kultura
<http://www.diogenpro.com>